The Super Bowl, an event fit for everyone, especially for New England Patriots and Seattle Seahawks Fans. It has sports, food, excitement, great company, and for some people, the best commercials.

1. The Lost Dog

Budweiser is one company with a great commercial reputation. Last year their commercial showed the story of the inseparable bond between a puppy and Clydesdales. This video went viral. They decided to carry this friendship over to this year's ad and it has millions of people, including myself, thinking this might top them all!

The title may make animal activists a bit worried at first but being an animal lover myself, I can tell you I haven't watched this commercial without crying tears of happiness yet.

2. A Girl's Best Friend

I looked at this Chevy commercial from a personal perspective. I had a black Labrador Retriever growing up and she was there for many of my ups in downs. I think you'll feel your own connection in this one.

3. The Lost Keys

It's no secret that I'm partial to English Bulldogs, but this commercial by Subaru really made me laugh, however, if this does happen to you contact your veterinarian right away.

4. In the Dog House

Another Subaru commercial made the list. I'm sure we all know what the term "in the dog house" means, but if not, this video will clearly let you know in a very humorous way.

5. Friends Are Waiting

And lastly, Budweiser makes another appearance with its ad centered around drinking responsibly, which is incredibly important... especially when you have a friend anxiously awaiting your return.
