Carrie Underwood made headlines when her dogs accidentally locked themselves and her 4-month-old son in the car, as reported by Lauren Zupkus of the Huffington Post, the singer had to think fast. Later, Underwood took to twitter. "When your dogs manage to lock themselves, all your stuff & the baby in the car & you have to break a window to get in. #WhatAreTheChances."

If you're a fan, you might remember that Carrie Underwood has had a thing or two to say in the past about breaking cars. Fortunately, she didn't hesitate to have her brother-in-law do just that. She relieved her fans after her initial tweet saying, "All is good now!"

We're glad everyone's okay and this is a great reminder that when it comes to summer heat safety, you never want to hesitate.
